

FATHER! I'M COMING HOME

ALPHA OMEGA

A modern Oratorio written and composed by

David Gordon

Father! I'm coming home to you awhile
Yes, Father! I'm coming home to you

When I feel alone and my views are in the sky
And a touch of your glory will send me my dreams
Yes I am so cautious and afraid to walk near
I just want to see you and be without fear!

Yes, Father! I'm coming home to you a while
Yes, Father! I'm coming home to you
Father! I want to be with you a while
Yes Father! I want to be with you

Now I am so cold and alone in myself
I just can't believe that you'd turn me away
I know that I am wrong in many things that I do
But I'll always have faith in my love for you

Father! I'm coming home to you awhile
Yes, Father! I'm coming home to you
Father! I want to be with you a while
Yes Father! I want to be with you

Father! I'm coming home to you awhile
Yes, Father! I'm coming home to you
Father! I want to be with you a while
Yes Father! I want to be with you
